

CCINW Meeting

February 10, 2011 – Thursday – 5:30PM - Seattle

“Safety and Biomechanics of the Body in the Work Place from a Chiropractic Perspective!”

Dr. David E. Ryan: David is a local chiropractor at Ryan Chiropractic Office who has been practicing in the Ballard area of Seattle for the last 31 years. His educational background is attached to this notice. His subject is “safety and biomechanics of the body in the work place from a chiropractic perspective.” - in other words, how to avoid a backache. This sounds like great news for anyone that pushes a wand or moves furniture around! This should be a great meeting.
