

Chapter Meeting

Washington Chapter

Tony Macaluso

Tony Macaluso is a veteran of thirty-three years in the cleaning and restoration industry. As an owner of Sunshine Fabric Cleaning & Restoration Company in Austin, Texas, his company has provided services in cleaning and restoration since 1973. As administrator of TM Cleaning & Restoration Schools, Tony has taught numerous classes throughout the United States, Canada, Great Britain, Norway, and Australia. He also provides consulting and teaching services for several organizations, i.e. Paul Davis Restoration, Fibreclean of Canada, National Flood School (England), Polygon (Norway), and the Australian Carpet Cleaning Institute.

Tony is currently serving as Chairman of the Odor Control Committee on the Technical Advisory Board of The Clean Trust, as well as a member of the Standards Committee on "Water Damage Restoration." He was also a Founding Father and past President of the Southwest Carpet Cleaners Association, which is now the Professional Cleaning & Restoration Alliance (PCRA).

Tony is a graduate of University of Puget Sound. He is certified as a Master Cleaner, Master Restoration Technician and Senior Carpet Inspector #0797 with The Clean Trust, Master Deflooding and Restoration specialist with C.D.R.N., Certified Mold Remediation Specialist with the AmIAQ, and Certified Restorer #70 with A.S.C.R.

Tony is still very active in day-to-day restoration work. His approach to hands-on training is related directly to the real world of restorative cleaning. Tony is known not only to be factual, but also for his honesty and bluntness.
